

Test-window predictive scores on a common off-diagonal reference measure

QA uses a leading-normalizer Fréchet-mixture approximation; all scores include the required coordinate Jacobian.